

ROSH HASHANAH TODAY

By Apostle Jacquelyn Fedor

Trumpets are sounding from a mountain unseen with natural eyes and the gates are opening wide to receive God's people in a city seen only by light seekers or those who have searched out the end time knowledge of God. It is from here that the new species of man blow their shofars, the ram's horn to gather God's people for the harvest. It is from here end time truth is sounded across the earth and the trumpets warn of the world's coming judgment.

Hebrews 12:18, 22-23 speaks of this mountain and city.

18 For you have not come to the mountain that may be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness and darkness and tempest,

22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels,

23 to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are registered in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect,

The City and her mountain originated from heaven and was birthed through the mind of God, not man. Only those written in the Lamb's book of Life, or are registered in heaven will be found there. God's angels guard, protect and watch over God's City of refuge, His stronghold on earth. They eagerly await Rosh Hashanah.

This feast, like some of the others, has more than one name. Within the different names truth is concealed to be opened only to those who seek it, those who experience the feast. Another name for the Feast of Rosh Hashanah is the Feast of Ingathering, At the maturing of God's people, His seed, there will be a final harvest. Those that have no interest in truth or love for God have been growing right alongside of God's seedlings, but His crop is ripening, maturing and are soon to be circumcised or harvested from the ungodly. It is the eighth day and they are ready!

Matthew 13:30, 37-38 prophesied this event.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, “First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.””

37 He answered and said to them: “He who sows the good seed is the Son of Man.

38 The field is the world, the good seeds are the sons of the kingdom, but the tares are the sons of the wicked one.

Did you know the final Rosh Hashanah is also known as the Lord's Day or Judgment Day? With this name in mind let us read on in Matthew 13.

Matthew 13:39-43

39 The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels.

40 Therefore as the tares are gathered and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of this age.

41 The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who practice lawlessness, 42 and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

The word judgment, Strong's 2917, is a legal term for a legal process deciding guilt or innocence. It is a word used for the verdict itself reached after an investigation. Even now this investigation is taking place in preparation for the final harvest.

The trumpets have been sounding a warning for quite some time now. This brings up another name for Rosh Hashanah, the Day of Sounding. Blasts from the mountain have sounded clearly, come out of the world, don't have soul ties to her people. They have revealed how those that are descendants of Adam have been crossbred by angels and are a species controlled by the enemy. They are altered physically, mentally, emotionally, and even materially. They are the founders of this world and have designed it through Satan's knowledge. God calls it all dead works. We could be found guilty by association even if innocent or assimilated into the world through our lifestyle if we do not separate. Upon investigation, will we look like the world, be found seeking the pleasures of the world, love its knowledge? Are we still tangled in the world's financial problems? If so it is quite probable we will share the world's fate. But there is still a little time to change and be found worthy. Hurry!

It is a great time and good news for the light seekers, those that love truth and seek God. You see there is another name for Rosh Hashanah that speaks of a new year, the beginning of a new day, Head of Days! It also alludes to the beginning of a new creation! It is handed down by the sages that it was at this time 7,000 years ago that mankind was created. Likewise, at this time, Rosh Hashanah, there are those today that are being born again, birthed into new creatures, a new species, through the Word of God and His covenant. These have searched for Truth, began to understand and isolate themselves from the lies of Satan and the people that constantly walk in them. They consumed and became that Truth and a part of the Word. They are the true body of Christ, his kin, His covenant people that are the fulfillment of all the glorious promises made to His heirs. Those born again and birthed through the living waters of the Wisdom of God are the true seed of Abraham.

Galatians 3:27&29

27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

29 And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

All over the earth man is beginning to see God's mountain with their mind's eye and are mentally walking the King's highway to His City to become part of its temple, the dwelling place of God! It's a wonderful time for the children of God and at the same time the closing of the last chapter for those altered by the enemy. A new and glorious kingdom is rising as the world around us falls away. We are living out the prophecy of Daniel found in Daniel 7:26 and 27.

Daniel 7:26-27

26 ‘But the court shall be seated (investigation over), and they shall take away his dominion (Satan through his body, his seed), to consume and destroy it forever.

27 Then the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people, the saints of the Most High. His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him.’

Revelation 21:2-4

2 Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them and be their God.

4 And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.”

In closing, the trumpets are blowing, God's knowledge is being released around the earth. The altered race, the descendants of Adam, are running to God's City and mountain to be sheltered from the old and embraced by the new. It's a grand and glorious Rosh Hashanah!

Happy New Year!!
